

CITY OF BANNING

City Council Districts

City Council Members represent five separate districts within the City. To run for City Council, you must be a registered voter of the electoral district you seek to represent. For example, to run for the District 1 seat on the City Council, you must be a registered voter of District 1. Each City Council term is four years.

In 2021, the City went through a decennial redistricting process using the 2020 Census data as required by state law. The new district boundaries are provided, including a map and legal description of boundaries, follows this overview. If you have any questions about which district you reside in, you may reach out to the Deputy City Clerk.

The offices open for election at the November 8, 2022 election are City Council districts 4 and 5. The terms of these offices will run through December 2026.
