

Banning Police Department
125 E. Ramsey Street, Banning, CA 92220 (951) 922-3170

Press Release

Date: January 20, 2021

Case# 21-119

Incident: Lewd acts against a child, willful cruelty to a child

On January 20, 2021 Banning Police Department Officers responded to a call for service in reference to felony child abuse. Officers took initial statements and were able to identify suspect Mark Anthony Aleman, who resides in the City of Banning, County of Riverside. Detectives were contacted and assumed the investigation. Detectives were able to make contact with suspect Aleman, who was later taken into custody. Detectives have identified two additional victims and anticipate others will be identified. Aleman was transported and booked into the Larry Smith Correctional Facility for the above listed criminal charges.

The Banning Police Department is asking anyone who may have additional information in regards to this case to contact the Banning Police Department Detective Bureau at (951) 922-3170.