Press Release

Date:	May 25, 2021	Case# 21-1056
Location:	800 Block of East Ramsey Street
Incident:	Carjacking

On May 25, 2021, at approximately 1247am Officers of the Banning Police Department were radio dispatched to the area of the 800 Block of East Ramsey Street in the City of Banning, County of Riverside, for a report of a carjacking that just occurred. The victim reported that while stopped at a local fuel station, she exited her unlocked, running vehicle and entered the business. While she was inside, she noticed someone had gotten into her vehicle. She ran out of the business, and she attempted to stop the suspect from leaving. As she approached, she discovered the suspect was inside of her vehicle and had locked the doors. As she attempted to open the door, the suspect drove out of the station parking-lot, knocking the victim to the ground and striking the victim with vehicle. The victim sustained minor injuries. The victim vehicle was later located and returned to the victim; however, the suspect is outstanding. The Banning Police Department Detective Bureau is actively investigating this case and asking for the public's help in identifying the suspect responsible for this crime.

The Banning Police Department is asking anyone who may have additional information in regard to this case to contact the Banning Police Department Detective Bureau at (951) 922-3170.
